

Key Elements Of IT Security Audit

A comprehensive security audit is required by businesses to check the state of current IT environment and to find out vulnerabilities in the system.

Key elements of an IT security audit are:

External Vulnerability Check

Ethical hacking

Penetration testing

Network scanning

Internal Network Configuration Check

Anti-virus check

Firewall configuration

Server patching check

Configuration of switches

Device security check

Active directory setup check

Warranties and software licensing check

Backup and disaster recovery check

IT Policies Audit

Password policy

Building access

Remote access policy

Server & workstation accessibility check

Mobile usage policy

File sharing policy

www.centextech.com
Centex Technologies

13355 Noel Road,
Suite # 1100, Dallas, TX 75240

501 N. 4th Street,
Killeen, TX 76541

1201 Peachtree St NE,
Suite 200, Atlanta, GA 30361

7600 Chevy Chase Drive,
Suite 300, Austin, TX 78752

Phone: (972) 375 - 9654

Phone: (254) 213 - 4740

Phone: (404) 994 - 5074

Phone: (512) 956 - 5454

Image Source: Designed by Freepik