

Questions To Ask Before Upgrading To A New Business App

The choice of platform/ features for your business app depends on a number of factors.

So, ask yourself following questions before deciding about a new business app:

#1

What are customers' expectations?

#2

How will the app impact customer experience?

#3

What will be the effect of app switch on order management?

#4

What is the amount and structure of product catalog data?

#5

Is the organization's ecosystem prepared for a new app?

#6

What will be the timeline of new app implementation?

#7

What kind of post-launch support will be needed?

#8

Is it the right time for designing and launching a new app?

#9

Do you have the staff with skills required to manage new app?
